There's an impressive silver trophy if ever there was one

Amelia's Silver Anniversary

It's the epicenter of the collector-car world, and there's nothing else like it. From March 5 through March 8, Amelia Island is transformed from a sleepy resort community into a beehive of cars, collectors and car lovers.

This is the 25th anniversary of the Amelia Island Concours d'Elegance. It's the brainchild of Bill Warner, who, along with his team, has created an event that stands alone in our old-car hobby.

The lobby of the Ritz-Carlton at Amelia becomes a living display of Who's Who in the collector-car world. Everyone will be there.

This year, Amelia is honoring Roger Penske and his 18 Indianapolis 500 victories. He will be the speaker at the gala dinner on Saturday evening.

Between auctions and car tours, Cars & Coffee, seminars and the concours itself, you will be moving at a frenzied pace from Monday through Sunday. And I guarantee you will pass through the lobby of the Ritz at least four times a day.

I'll be signing copies of the SCM 2019 Year in Review at the Putnam leasing booth at the Amelia Island Concours, as well as serving as a judge on Sunday. I'll also be in the SCM booth for most of the afternoon.

I look forward to seeing you there, as we all celebrate Bill Warner's vision in its 25th year of magnificence. — Keith Martin, Publisher, Sports Car Market ■

Amelia Island Stars and Sleepers

Auction-house principals predict this year's headliners and surprises

RM Sotheby's

Gord Duff
Global Head of Auctions,
RM Sotheby's

RM Sotheby's Star Car: 1938 Bugatti Type 57 Aravis

Star Car We have some great classics in store for our 2020 Amelia Island auction, and the 1938 Bugatti Type 57 Aravis has to be the standout. This is a truly gorgeous car, one of only two Type 57s bodied by D'Ieteren and the only example in this body style. It's offered from a prominent private collection wearing a well-maintained and freshened restoration completed in Europe. The car toured Europe in-period, and was invited to both Pebble Beach and Villa d'Este following restoration; it won class awards at each, and is now eligible to return. It is presented in two-tone black and maroon with dark cherry sides and extremely attractive rear-end styling, complete with its original fitted luggage in the trunk. This is one of the renowned European classics and we anticipate several collectors looking to add it to their collection this spring.

Sleeper Car My sleeper-car selection for this year's sale is definitely the 1978 Jaguar XJS Group 44 Trans-Am racer campaigned by the legendary Bob Tullius and his Group 44. On its first race outing, things didn't go so well; at its next race, it placed 2nd and then it won every race entered following that, becoming the winner of the 1978 Trans-Am Driver's and Manufacturer's Championships. Next up, it contested the 24 Hours of Daytona and did quite well, finishing 9th. After the season, Tullius retired the car and placed it in storage in his shop for the next 30 years. It's now offered from just its third owner and in essentially the same condition as when it left the Daytona track in 1978. Never painted, never restored, this is a special piece ready for vintage events or the show field, where I look forward to seeing it.

Bonhams

Bonhams Star Car: 1932 Bugatti Type 55 Jean Bugatti roadster

Star Cars Among a wide array of collector cars, Bonhams is proud to present the Gerhard Schnuerer Collection, which focuses on Mercedes, Benz and Mercedes-Benz cars, and property from the Estate of Dean S. Edmonds Jr. Within the latter group is one of the stars of our auction, a 1932 Bugatti Type 55 Jean Bugatti roadster. One of the true icons of automotive design, this car was ordered new by Victor Rothschild, has an impeccable history and has been in Mr. Edmonds' collection since 1985.

Sleeper For our sleeper car, I choose the 1967 Con-Ferr Meyers Manx Buggy, which so famously starred in the Steve McQueen movie "The Thomas Crown Affair." The suave, sophisticated Crown is one of McQueen's great roles, and the scene of racing across the dunes in this buggy is unforgettable. Exquisitely restored and fresh to the market, it's really anyone's guess what the romance of this will generate in terms of dollars.

Gooding & Company Star Car: 1914 Rolls-Royce 40/50HP Silver Ghost Torpedo phaeton

Star Cars One of our star cars is the 1914 Rolls-Royce 40/50HP Silver Ghost Torpedo phaeton, chassis 67RB (estimate: $2.7m–$3.5m). This exceptional Rolls-Royce is only one of approximately 12 prewar Silver Ghosts with original open coachwork; in this case an elegant Torpedo phaeton, built by the esteemed firm Kellner of Paris, France. This Edwardian automotive masterpiece still retains many of its original appointments, such as its finely detailed cocktail cabinets, and recently underwent a complete restoration by the renowned model expert Steve Littin. We are proud to present this historic and beautifully restored Silver Ghost, which was a nominee for Best of Show honors at the 2015 Pebble Beach Concours d’Elegance and the winner of the Rolls-Royce Trophy at the prestigious Concorso d’Eleganza Villa d’Este in 2019.

Sleeper My sleeper car pick for this auction is our 1969 Lamborghini Miura P400 S (estimate: $1.4m–$1.8m). The rare S model is highly sought after among collectors, and this particular car, chassis 4109, is predicted to be one of the most exciting offers in Amelia Island. This Miura is in superb unrestored condition and is finished in the striking and unusual livery of Rosso Alfa Romeo with blue leather interior. Originally sold new to the U.S., this Miura has had only three owners from new, shows less than 18,000 miles, and has never before been offered at auction, making it an incredibly rare find for collectors with a passion for preservation-quality sports cars.

The Amelia Island Auction

1967 Ferrari 330 GTS

This is Bonhams' sixth year selling on the island. Each auction seems more stacked with quality consignments than the last one. The fine selection of cars is on offer at an earlier time slot than the rest of the Amelia auctions. As an example of the variety of lots, last year, a 1930 Cadillac 452A V16 Fleetwood roadster topped the sales chart at $1,187,500, while a 2015 McLaren P1 was the high seller at $1.7m in 2018.

Barrett-Jackson Palm Beach 2020

2018 Ford GT '67 Heritage Edition

Barrett-Jackson sold 640 of 643 cars at this sale last year — good enough for a 99.5% sell-through rate. The South Florida Fairgrounds serve as backdrop for Barrett-Jackson's annual Florida sale, where 500-plus mostly no-reserve consignments will cross the block. The automobilia auction offers some of the rarest or one-of-a-kind collectibles, quite often at no reserve. Whatever you're looking for, you'll likely find it here, as this auction tends to have a wide range of offerings.

Last year's results: 640/643 cars sold / $30.9m

Your search ends here.

You may have had one of them on your bedroom wall. Or perhaps you remember that time you saw one pass you by on 17-Mile Drive. In all likelihood, you will find it here, on our showroom floor.

We believe in doing things properly. Each incoming car in our stable has a catalogued inventory and gets a minute detailing before being ready for display. Our dedicated workshop, an eight-man army of pro techs, ensures every car is up to the strictest standard in looks and performance. We can source any spare parts, too, and save you the headache of hunting the world over.

Perhaps it's time to take that old poster off your wall and put the real thing in your garage. Or perhaps it's a matter of adding some diversity to your portfolio; we have over 80 solid investments you can be proud of.

Driving proper has never been easier. Why not give us a call?

Looking for a bargain? SG Auction in Winona, MN, caters to the more budget-conscious car collector

Mecum Auctions — Glendale 2020

Where: Glendale, AZ

When: March 11–14

Web: www.mecum.com

Last year: 731/1,256 cars sold / $30.9m

2019 was the first year for Mecum's Arizona auction in March, and it was one of their highest-grossing sales of the year. The $30.8m total was only eclipsed in Kissimmee and Indianapolis. Glendale 2020 is shaping up to be another home run for Mecum, with quality consignments already secured, many of which are pristine examples of 1960s and '70s American muscle. They include a 1970 Plymouth Hemi 'Cuda 2-door hard top and a 1969 Chevrolet COPO Chevelle 2-door hard top, both from the Dennis Zentner Collection. A 1963 Corvette Split-Window coupe and pair of '69 Corvette L88 convertibles, selling as a pair, will interest fans of America's Sports Car.

Premier Auction Group — Gulf Coast Classic

Where: Punta Gorda, FL

When: March 20–21

Web: www.premierauctiongroup.com

Last year: 214/338 cars sold / $5.7m

The Charlotte Harbor Event Center is once again the home for Premier Auction Group's March 2020 Gulf Coast Classic Auction. The event features a wide variety of makes and models that span nearly 100 years of automotive evolution. In 2019, the auction finished with a strong $5.7m sales total led by a 2016 F-type Project 7 convertible that earned $187,380.

Mecum Auctions — Houston 2020

Where: Houston, TX

When: April 2–4

Web: www.mecum.com

Last year: 598/902 cars sold / $17.9m

Mecum's stop in Houston has achieved a healthy sales total ranging from $18m to $21m over the past four years. Also consistent is the robust sell-through rate of this sale, hovering near 70%. The 2019 sale saw an increase in the number of consignments crossing the block, and the average sale price was a budget-friendly $25k. The top sale of 2019 was a 2014 Ferrari F12 berlinetta selling for $203.5k, followed by a custom '68 Bronco by ICON achieving $192.5k.

The Branson Auction

Where: Branson, MO

When: April 17–18

Web: www.bransonauction.com

Last year: 142/200 cars sold / $2.9m

The Branson Auction's two yearly sales held in Branson, MO, always feature at least a few cars for every collector, regardless of taste. Beautiful Ford, Chevrolet and other American makes are well represented, with a healthy mix of other brands including Rolls-Royce and Jaguar. Even better is the average selling price of a reasonable $20k. A 1963 Corvette Split-Window coupe that sold for $99k was among the top sales in 2019, only bested by a 1930 Rolls-Royce Phantom I Regent convertible achieving $231k.

SG Auction — Winona

Where: Winona, MN

When: May 1–2

Web: www.sgauction.net

SG Auction's Winona sale is a must-attend for any enthusiast looking to take home their dream car without breaking the bank. The average sold price is often below $20k, with popular muscle-car models making up most of the consignment list. Winona also remains a great venue for fans of vintage pickups and utility vehicles and offers plenty of foreign makes as well.

From elegant classics to American muscle, RM Auctions' sale in Auburn, IN, offers something for all tastes

RM Auctions — Auburn Spring

Where: Auburn, IN

When: May 8–9

Web: www.rmsothebys.com

Last year: 185/281 cars sold / $4.7m

The Auburn Auction Park is home to two RM Auctions sales every year. The Auburn Spring auction provides an excellent opportunity for patient bidders to find a bargain. In 2019, the average selling price for vehicles was just over $25k. The consignment list is often heavy with American models of every shape and size, from elegant classics to muscle cars. There are always a few oddballs as well. The top sale last year was a beautiful 1930 Cord L-29 phaeton selling for $157,300.

Mecum Auctions — Indy 2020

Where: Indianapolis, IN

When: May 12–17

Web: www.mecum.com

Last year: 1,127/1,724 cars sold / $63.1m

The Original Spring Classic, now in its 33rd year, is Mecum's second-largest auction of the year in number of cars and overall sales total. Indy is one of the rare collector-car auctions that has continued to see increasing sales year to year. The $63m achieved in 2019 is the second-highest total of the past 10 years, only eclipsed by the $65.5m from 2018. Although marques from across the world are represented in Indy, the venue continues to be popular for American muscle cars, with the docket often including hard-to-find and rare examples. Last year's top sellers were a '67 Shelby Cobra 427 S/C earning $2.86m and a '66 Cobra 427 achieving $2.42m.

Bonhams — Greenwich Concours d'Elegance Auction

Where: Greenwich, CT

When: May 31

Web: www.bonhams.com

Last year: 71/99 cars sold / $4.4m

Bonhams' Greenwich auction features one of the most diverse lineups of collector cars of an auction throughout the year. The 2019 auction offerings spanned a century of automotive history, from a 1907 Cadillac Model M tourer to a 2007 Bentley Continental GTC. In addition, the docket is split almost equally between American brands and those from the rest of the world. Selling for $417,500, a 1949 Alfa Romeo 6C 2500 SS cabriolet by Pinin Farina was the top earner in Greenwich 2019.

Leake — Tulsa

Where: Tulsa, OK

When: June 4–6

Web: www.leakecar.com

Last year: 352/516 cars sold / $8.1m

Leake's Tulsa auction has been a steady performer over the past four years, achieving a total near $8m each time. It also remains an excellent spot for buyers on a budget, with average sale prices near $23k. American brands dominate most of the Tulsa consignments, with cars, pickups and vintage utility vehicles all represented. There is also a healthy amount of modern luxury and sports cars on hand for those wanting style and comfort. A custom 1963 Corvette Split-Window coupe topped sales in 2019 at $126.5k.

Mecum — Portland 2020

Where: Portland, OR

When: June 12–13

Web: www.mecum.com

Last year: 252/416 cars sold / $6.6m

2020 marks Mecum's fifth return to Portland for their only auction held in the Pacific Northwest. Portland is one of the smaller events on the Mecum calendar but provides a large assortment of makes and models for bidders to choose from. Everything from Porsche and Triumph to Datsun and Toyota is featured — along with a large swath of American muscle. The docket even includes the occasional supercar. Best of all, the Portland auction is affordable, with an average selling price in 2019 of just $26.5k.

Barrett-Jackson — Northeast

Where: Uncasville, CT

When: June 24–27

Web: www.barrett-jackson.com

Last year: 548/548 cars sold / $23.2m

Sales totals at the Northeast auction have not fallen below $23m since its inception in 2016, and the sale has finished with a remarkable 100% sell-through rate the past two years. As is the case with every Barrett-Jackson event, consignments range from American muscle cars and custom SUVs to modern luxury and supercars from Europe. Top non-charity sales in 2019 included a 2008 Mercedes-Benz SLR McLaren Roadster and a 2019 Corvette Yenko/SC Stage II convertible, selling for $280.5k and $258.5k respectively. ■

Timoti's Seafood Shak

I'd be surprised if you didn't already know about Timoti's Seafood Shak in Fernandina Beach. It's about a 15-minute drive north of the Ritz. Actually, we got the recommendation from a local last year. Excellent and affordable seafood in a relaxed casual setting with options for a nice stroll around Fernandina Beach to walk off the meal and maybe do a little random shopping (more for the fairer sex) afterward. — Bruce Cochran
